How we approach every project

We look to the future with the understanding that growth means responsibility. That is why we design products for the circular economy that are up to 96% recyclable.

Sustainability extends to production too, with the result that we have achieved a 46% reduction in consumption for every refrigerated display we produce.

We have always nurtured a vision

We have always nurtured a vision, to construct an organised and harmonious system dedicated to the presentation and preservation of food products and consumables, with a flair for constant innovation.

That is why we are guided in all our decisions by a clear paradigm.

You only need to DREAM. To dream with imagination, innovation, and a desire to create something new.

You also need the COURAGE to take a risk. The risk to make your dreams come true, even those that seem impossible.

And you need ETHICS and respect for nature and people if you are to improve the quality of life continuously.

Finally, you need COMMON SENSE to bring all this together and to create a better future.

This is Arneg's business philosophy.

“ NOTHING IS FIXED
AND UNCHANGING.
EVERYTHING CAN BE DONE DIFFERENTLY,
IMPROVED, RE-INVENTED.

Maurice Roberts
